

University of Leicester

Molecular and Cellular Biosciences

MINI SYMPOSIUM

FRANK & KATHERINE MAY LECTURE THEATRE
HENRY WELLCOME BUILDING

WEDNESDAY 20 OCTOBER 2010

4.00 – 4.30pm Anne Willis (Director MRC Toxicology Unit, Leicester)

“Translational Control Following Cell Stress”

4.30 – 5.00pm Eric Cundliffe (Emeritus Professor of Biochemistry, Leicester)

“ Ribosomes, Antibiotics and Swiss Watches: 1067 and all that”

5.00pm Drinks – HWB Atrium

26th Biochemistry Department

REDFEARN MEMORIAL LECTURE 2010

In memory of the life and work of Eric Redfearn (1924-1968)

5.30 – 6.30pm Venki Ramakrishnan (MRC-LMB, Cambridge)

Nobel Prize Lecturer in Chemistry 2009

“How the ribosome ensures the fidelity of translating the genetic code”

These lectures are open to all, but please register your attendance with Liz Barber at eab22@le.ac.uk

Theme leaders : Prof. John Schwabe and Prof. Andrew Tobin