Previous 3PO seminar programmes

3PO seminar programme 2014/15

- 12 November 2014: John Bartle (Essex) The Policy Mood in Great Britain and Spain, 15:00-16:30, CW 801.
- 19 November 2014: Elin Bjarnegard (Uppsala) Gender equality reforms on an uneven playing field: Comparing gender quota implementation across political parties in Tanzania, 15:00-16:30, CW 802.
- 18 February 2015: Jonathan Tonge (Liverpool) The Moral Majority? The Democratic Unionist Party and government in Northern Ireland, 15:00-16:30, CW 802.
- 11 March 2015: Sarah Childs (Bristol), 15:00-16:30, KE 322.

3PO seminar programme 2013/14

- 16 October 2013: Ben Clements (Leicester) Religion and public opposition to same-sex marriage in Britain, Ken Edwards building, room 527, 16:00-17:30
- 20 November 2013: Tom Quinn (Essex) Two party systems in the UK and New Zealand, Ken Edwards building, room 322, 15:00-17:00
- 29 January 2014: Sofia Vasilopoulou (York) Does crisis produce right-wing extremism? Nationalism, Cultural Opportunities and Varieties of support, 15:30-17:00, ATT206
- 12 March 2014: Elias Dinas (Oxford), The Ideological Shadow of Authoritarianism, 15:00-17:00, ATT206
- 11 June 2014: Hilde Coff (Victoria University of Wellington, NZ) Gender and Female Representation in German Parliamentary Committees: 1972-2009, 15:30-17:30, KE 322
- 18 June 2014: Jane Green (Manchester), Explaining the Costs of Governing: How the public evaluates government performance, and why this matters, 15:00-17:00, Fielding Johnson, first floor Council Suite, room 1

3PO seminar programme 2012/13

- 24 October 2012: Lauren McLaren (Nottingham) National identity and perceptions of political systems in Europe, Ken Edwards building, room 528, 15:00-17:00
- 21 November 2012: Nicholas Allen (Royal Holloway) Policy and process preferences in an era of anti-politics: an American window onto British public opinion, Fielding Johnson South Wing Basement: The Ogden Lewis Seminar Suite 1, 15:00-17:00
- 6 February 2013: Elisabeth Carter (Keele) Extremism and radicalism: the war of words revisited, Attenborough 212, 15:00-17:00
• 20 March 2013: Tim Bale (Queen Mary) and Stuart Ball (Leicester) The Conservative Party, Ken Edwards Lecture Theatre 3, 15:00-17:30. This seminar brought together two leading scholars of the Conservative Party, the political scientist Professor Tim Bale (Queen Mary, London) and historian Professor Stuart Ball (Leicester). Stuart Ball discussed highlights from his forthcoming Portrait of a Party, an extensive study of the Conservative Party in the 1918-45 period based partly on a new dataset of election results and census data. Tim Bale presented on his new book on the drivers of party change in the Conservative party since 1945, drawing on extensive original research into what explains changes in party organisation and policies.

• 8 May 2013: Pontus Odmalm (Edinburgh) Getting the balance right: conflicting ideological ‘pulls’ and party competition on immigration in Britain and Sweden, Attenborough 212, 15:00-17:00