Feedback

Key principles

Feedback is provided to applicants who have been unsuccessful in obtaining an offer of a place on a course or program to which they have applied.

Providing feedback helps applicants, by:

- Providing further detail about why their application was unsuccessful;
- Allowing applicants to better prepare for future applications;
- Provides closure to their application.

Features of good practice in providing feedback are:

- To give clear reasons why an application was unsuccessful;
- To provide feedback in clear and concise language that can be understood immediately

Requesting feedback

Any requests for feedback should be made in writing or via email within 60 days of communication of the unsuccessful decision. A response will be given within 10 working days.

Email addresses to obtain feedback are:
