Welcome to the College of Arts, Humanities and Law

Postgraduate Open Evening

This Open Evening is designed to give you the chance to discover more about campus-based and distance learning postgraduate taught courses and research in the following areas:

- Archaeology and Ancient History
- English
- Historical Studies
- History of Art and Film
- Humanities
- Law
- Modern Languages
- Museum Studies

Over 40 different Masters and PhD programmes can be studied at one of Britain's leading providers of postgraduate education.

On the evening

On arrival at the University please head to the Council Room in the Fielding Johnson building to register.

There will be two welcome talks, given by the Head of College, Professor Douglas Tallack, during the evening, one at 6.00pm and one at 7.00pm

There will also be tours of the University's award-winning David Wilson Library during the evening, at 6.30pm and 7.30pm.

After registering, you will be able to chat to an academic about your subject area and studying as a postgraduate student at Leicester. Current postgraduate students will also be on hand to talk to you about their experiences.

Scholarships

We are pleased to offer more than 20 scholarships to new postgraduate students. These scholarships provide a range of support including part fee waivers, stipends and research support grants.

Visit our website or find out more at the Open Evening.

How to Find Us

By Train: If you are travelling to Leicester by train, the University is about a 15 to 20 minute walk from the Midland Mainline railway station. You may wish to catch a bus from outside the station up to the University. Buses 48 and 80 will take you to the bus stop by the main entrance to the University, Mayors Walk on University Road.

By Bus or Coach: If you arrive by bus or coach at St Margaret's Bus Station, you can take bus number 48 to the stop for the University at the bottom of Mayors Walk on University Road. It will take approximately 40 minutes to walk up to the University from the bus station. There is also a taxi rank at the bus station.

By Car: Parking is available on campus for disabled visitors only who hold a disabled parking badge - you should report to entrance 1 of the Main Campus on arrival. We are unable to provide parking for other visitors and we apologise for the inconvenience this may cause.

Public car parks: The nearest car park is the Victoria Park pay and display on the corner of Granville Road and Regent Road near to the entrance to De Montfort Hall. There is also a Euro car park on Almond Road, next to Morrison's supermarket, a short way down Welford Road towards the city centre from the University. It is a 10 minute walk to the University from here. The nearest multi-storey car park is at the end of Regent Road, where it joins Welford Road, near to the city centre. This is an NCP car park above the Bannatyne Health Club. It is a 15 to 20 minute walk to the University from here.
