This privacy notice explains how we use your personal information and your rights regarding that information

What information are we collecting?

No demographic information will get collected. The survey you are responding to is anonymous. Any personal information that could lead to identification of the respondent will be deleted and void the submitted questions.

What do we do with your information?

Only anonymised and aggregate data will be shared and published. Output resulting from the survey will be available through conventional scientific dissemination in the next years.

What is the legal basis for processing the data?

- Consent. Participating in this survey is voluntary and no one will be able to identify you through the responses.

If we are sharing your data with others who are we sharing it with?

The information will stay within the project team at Leicester University and be shared with external collaborators in a fully anonymised form.

How long we will process your data for?

When the project is completed (which will be in about 5 years' time) we will destroy the submitted data.

How can I access the information you hold about me?

Please contact the project team.
