

Public Conference

Postcolonial Studies Association Convention

7-9 September 2015

Prof. John McLeod (Leeds)

Against Biocentrism: Adoption, Writing, Diaspora

Prof. Paul Gilroy
(King's College London)

Europe Otherwise: Mare Nostrum and the Banality of Good

Dr. Gayatri Gopinath
(New York University)

The Aesthetic Practices of Queer Diaspora

Prof Paul Gilroy's lecture and the drinks reception are sponsored by the Journal of Postcolonial Writing, as a celebration of its 10th Anniversary and of its partnership with the PSA.

Diaspora has been one of the key concepts of postcolonial studies. The study of human movement during colonial and postcolonial times has taken a number of shapes across the humanities and social sciences through the study of diaspora, migration, transnationalism, cosmopolitanism and globalisation. It is this theme that the conference special topic will address.
