ESRC Seminar Series 2009-2011

"Geographies of Energy Transition: Security, Climate, and Governance."
Seminar 2: Scales of energy security: between geopolitics and governance

ERI Conference Room (G51)
University of Birmingham
Friday, 7th May 2010

10.15 Registration and Coffee

11:00 Geographies of energy security and transition: diverse perspectives
Dr Stefan Bouzarovski (University of Birmingham) and Professor Michael Bradshaw (University of Leicester)

11:20 Keynote: Professor Michael Klare, Amherst College

11:50 Keynote: Dr Bernice Lee, Chatham House

12:20 Discussion

13:15 Lunch

14:15 Interventions
From international to local: scales of energy security
(10 minutes each, followed by discussion)
Dr Susanne Nies, French Institute for International Relations - Brussels
Dr Paul Upham, University of Manchester
Professor Simon Marvin, University of Salford

15:45 Tea

16:00 Interventions
Materiality, resilience, agency: 'opening up' energy security
(10 minutes each, followed by discussion)
Dr Andrew Barry, University of Oxford
Dr Sujatha Raman, University of Nottingham
Professor Gordon Walker, University of Lancaster

Unfortunately we are unable to cover transport costs. However, there are a number of travel bursaries available to postgraduate students.
Places are strictly limited so please register your interest as soon as possible by contacting Stefan Bouzarovski at buzars@adf.bham.ac.uk.

How to find us:
The seminar will take place in Room G51, European Research Institute (ERI), within the Edgbaston Campus of the University of Birmingham. Information on travel to Birmingham and a campus map can be found at: http://www.about.bham.ac.uk/maps/edgbaston.shtml. The ERI is building G3 in the 'green zone'. Please note that the University has its own train station which is only 10 minutes away from New Street (there are 6 trains per hour). The ERI is a 10-15 minute walk from the University train station.