PUBLIC LECTURE IN THE COURSE OF HOLOCAUST AWARENESS WEEK

Hannah Lewis
A Girl Surviving the Holocaust: A Testimony

Organised by the Stanley Burton Centre for Holocaust and Genocide Studies and the Holocaust Educational Trust

In this extraordinary survivor lecture, Hannah Lewis will recount her experiences growing up in Włodawa, Poland, where her relatively normal childhood was devastated by the Nazi occupation of Poland. Her testimony will feature her survival through the Second World War, and her understanding of how the Holocaust has impacted the contemporary world. A Q&A session will follow Hannah’s testimony.

Bennett Lower Ground Floor
Lecture Theatre 2
Thursday 8 February 2018,
5.30pm - 7pm

For further information please contact
James Milton e: jm683@student.le.ac.uk or Dr Svenja Bethke e: sb744@le.ac.uk