

CHI'13 W20: Made for Sharing: HCI Stories of Transfer, Triumph and Tragedy
27th April 2013 (Sat), Université Paris-Dauphine, France
(<http://chi2013.acm.org/attending/workshops/>)

Agenda

Time	Event		MC
9:00 - 9:15	Welcome & Introduction		Effie
Paper presentation: Block A - 6 papers of case studies on work-oriented applications
9:15 - 10:45	Jessica Wardlaw	Adaptation of Method-resources Between Projects: A Case Study From a Dynamic and Complex Work Domain	Arnold
	Valerla Gasik	Lean design for good user experience
	Veikko Ikonen	Workshop series for concept definition: customising methods for expert group meetings
	Ebba Hvannberg	Impact of Sensory and Collaborative Contexts on Usability Evaluation Methods Resources
	Marcin Sikorski	A Cross-team Collaborative Evaluation of a CRM System
	Edward De Guzman	Should this be in my profile? A Case Study of using Card Sorting as a technique to understand user's thoughts in information privacy
10:45 - 11:15	Coffee Break
Paper presentation: Block B - 6 papers on methodological or theoretical frameworks
11:15 - 12:45	Heli Rantavuo	Heuristic Evaluation of User Experience – Case Nokia	Ebba
	Arnold Vermeeren	Facilitating the take-up of new HCI practices: a 'diffusion of innovations' perspective
	Gilbert Cockton	Diffusion of Worth Maps: The Roles of Resource Functions and Worth
	Nigel Bevan	Comparison of Case Studies of Usability Maturity Assessment and Process Improvement
	Timo Jokela	Interviews rather than field studies: good data with less efforts?
	Mark Springett	Integrating the Strengths of Cognitive Emotion Models with Traditional HCI Interaction Analysis Tools
12:45 - 14:00	Lunch Break
Paper presentation: Block C - 6 papers on leisure-oriented applications
14:00 - 15:30	Alistair Sutcliffe	Some Reflections on Evaluating Users' Experience	Timo
	Jan Derboven	Hidden Biases in Semiotic Engineering: Introducing Communicability Evaluation to Multi-Touch Interface Design
	Marta Lárusdóttir	Agile scrum approaches: Case studies of transfer
	Leena Arhipainen	Mixed UX Methods Can Help to Achieve Triumphs
	Mikael Johnson	On slowly changing contextual data detail that shapes user involvement in social media and beyond
	Heli Väätäjä	Without a Clue What Design It Leads to: Exploring and Understanding a City and Life within It by Walking
15:30 - 16:00	Coffee Break
16:00 - 17:30	Small group discussion		Gilbert
17:30 - 18:00	Future work & Wrap up		Effie