

Vulnerability and Cultural Heritage I: heritage crime, illicit trade, stewardship and ethics

Provenance and price: The invisible hand of the antiquities market?

Conditions for guilt-free consumption in a transnational criminal market

Trade Fairs: A Marketing Tool for the Sale of Antiquities

Loved, listed, looted: crime at the Lady Victoria Colliery

Combatting Heritage Crime: Key Findings from the ACE Museum Security Programme

Heritage Crime - 'What's the Problem?'

Heritage Crime – What's the Solution? The development of multi-disciplinary approaches

Protection of Cultural Heritage in Times of Crisis

When Is "1970" Not Enough and When Is it Too Much?
Evolving U.S. Museum Policies and Practices for the Acquisition of Archaeological Objects

The Impact of Money Laundering Measures

Money Laundering Measures and Ethical Dealing: the Demands Placed upon High Value Dealers and Museums in the UK

Museums and Antiquities after Marion True

Black Sea Tomb Raiders and the Practice of International Cultural Exchange: Revisiting the Ethics and Responsibility of Museums

The Italian efforts to initiate forfeiture proceedings of the Fano Athlete/Getty Bronze in Italy

Illicit trafficking of cultural heritage as a crime. The role of the judiciary

Heritage and Development: A view from Central America

Indigenous Sacred Objects: Trade and Stewardship Issues

Help or Hindrance? The Utility of the Conflict of Laws Process in Claims for the Return of Cultural Objects Wrongfully Removed

Prosecuting heritage offences—a cautionary tale

Stewardship and moral title: viable legal concepts

The Normative Framework of Stewardship: Care and Respect

Thursday 9th and
Friday 10th May 2013

Thursday

09.30—18.00

Garendon Room, 4th Floor,
Charles Wilson Building,
University of Leicester

Friday

9.30 - 13.15

Rose Room, Belmont Hotel,
De Montfort Street, LE1 7GR

Fee:

Thursday £10.00

Friday free upon registration

Free to members of the Museums Association, the Collections Trust, English Heritage or staff and research students at Leicester University

Conference organiser: Janet Ulph

Registration queries:
Teresa Rowe email: teresa.rowe@le.ac.uk

Web: <http://www.le.ac.uk/law/>