ESTEEM INDICATORS

Editorial Boards:

I am assistant editor (and the editor of the 'Commentaries' section) of the Medical Law Review. I am also on the editorial board (and co-editor of the 'Public Policy and Law' section) of the journal Clinical Ethics, and of the UK Clinical Ethics Network.

Other Esteem Indicators (since 2014):

Member: Wellcome Trust’s Society and Ethics Interview Committee (for a term of 3 years from 1st October 2013-16; invited to serve a second term 2016-19). The Committee interviews candidates who have applied for funding from the Wellcome Trust under the Society and Ethics funding stream.

Member: General Medical Council’s ‘Task and Finish Group on Cosmetic Practice’, composing guidance on the regulation of cosmetic surgery.

Nuffield Council on Bioethics Cosmetic Surgery Factfinding Meeting on Regulation and Governance Perspectives in the Context of Cosmetic Procedures – invited expert participant Quoted in government’s response to the Medical Innovation Bill (2014).

Member of the Council of the Open Section of the Royal Society of Medicine (from 2012-14).

I am the chair of the Midlands Medical Law Consortium, a collaboration between medical lawyers at the universities of Leicester, Nottingham, Birmingham, De Montfort and Nottingham Trent. The aim is to apply for external funding – we were successful in our first application to the AHRC (see successful funding bids above).
“Expert Evidence: Difficulties and Solutions in Prosecutions for Infant Harm” (with John Hartshorne) cited on three occasions by the Law Commission's report into the role of expert evidence in criminal proceedings (Law Commission, Expert Evidence in Criminal Proceedings in England and Wales (Law Com 325, 2011)).

'Bye-Bye Bolam' was included in a collection of 'internationally influential' essays (F. Miller (ed) Rights and Resources (Ashgate, 2003), see above). It was also cited by the High Court of Australia in the case of Rosenberg v. Percival [2001] HCA 18.

Reviewed articles submitted for publication to the Child and Family Law Quarterly, the Modern Law Review, the Journal of Applied Philosophy, the Journal of Medical Ethics, the British Journal of General Practice, Medical Science Monitor and Medical Law International. I have reviewed book proposals and works in progress for Hart Publishing, Oxford University Press and Cambridge University Press amongst others.

Member of an Independent Ethics Committee for PPD Developments based at Leicester General Hospital between 2002 and 2004.

External examiner at the Universities of Birmingham (LLB and LLM programmes 2010-12), Bristol (BSc Bioethics, Bristol Medical School, 2012-16) Dundee (LLM 2010-2013), Keele (MA 2009-present), Lancaster (LLB 2009-12), and Manchester (MA, 2012-16). Currently external examiner at UCL (LLB and LLM, 2016-present) and King’s College, London (MA/LLM, 2014-present).

External examiner of Ph.D. theses at the University of Wales, Aberystwyth (Glenys Williams 2001), the University of Southampton (Harry East, 2012) and University of Manchester (Joanne Beswick, 2012; Kate Hodkinson 2014) and the University of Newcastle (Melanie Blair 2014), University of Leeds (Razan Albenali 2015), Lancaster University (Ernest Owusu-Dapaa, 2016), University of Otago (Kathryn McAuley, 2016), Cardiff University (Tom Hayes 2016) and University of Newcastle-upon-Tyne (Anita Madan, 2017).
