

FACILITATING SOCIAL INCLUSION IN A CHANGING HUMAN RIGHTS LANDSCAPE

Fielding Johnson building – Law School, Council Suite Room 1 (First Floor) – 26-27 March 2020

Thursday, 26 March 2020

9.00 Registration

9.25 Greetings

PANEL 1 – Human rights struggles: a sociological perspective

Convened by: Dr Lieve Gies (University of Leicester)

9.30-11.00

Human Rights Law, the Citizen/Human Paradox, Diversity and Inequality
Prof. Kate Nash (Department of Sociology, Goldsmiths, University of London)

Human Rights and the Art of Being
Dr Nick Stevenson (School of Sociology and Social Policy, University of Nottingham)

11.00-11.30 Coffee break

PANEL 2 – A 2020 vision of the constitutional and international landscape

Convened by: Prof. Katja Ziegler and Dr Ed Bates (Leicester Law School)

11.30-13.30

Parliament's Role in the UK Human Rights Landscape
Eleanor Hourigan (Counsel for Human Rights and International Law)

[Title tbc]
Dr Ben Warwick (University of Birmingham)

'Glocalization' of Indivisible Rights and the (In)visibility of Social Inclusion Issues
Dr Ingrid Leijten (Leiden University)

The Human Rights Act and social inclusion
Professor Merris Amos (Queen Mary, University of London)

13.30-14.15 Lunch

PANEL 3 – Broader horizons: the social inclusion dimension to trade agreements and human rights

Convened by: Dr Ewa Zelazna (Leicester Law School)

14.15-16.15

EU's Deep Trade Agenda for Fundamental Rights
Isabella Mancini (City University of London)

Arbitration as a Tool to Support Sustainable Development: The Hague Rules on Business and Human Rights Arbitration
Giorgia Sangiuolo (BHR Drafting Team and Kings College London)

The Regulatory Dimension of Trade and Sustainable Development Provisions in the EU's FTAs
Dr Aakriti Bhardwaj (University of Nottingham)

Friday, 27 March 2020

PANEL 4 – Social inclusion, citizenship and migration

Convened by: Prof. Bernard Ryan, Dr Oxana Golyunker and Alan Desmond (Leicester Law School)

9.00-11.00

Registration of British citizenship: a story of neglect and social exclusion

Steve Valdez-Symonds (Amnesty International, UK Refugee and Migrant Rights Programme Director)

Post-Brexit Proof of Citizenship and Immigration Status

Prof. Bernard Ryan (Leicester Law School)

Brexit and Coordination of Social Security Schemes between the UK and the EU: the Dilemmas of Integration, Disintegration and Re-integration

Oxana Golyunker (Leicester Law School)

11.00-11.30 Coffee break

PANEL 5 – Social inclusion, gender and law

Convened by: Dr Kimberley Brayson and Dr Alexander Maine (Leicester Law School)

11.30-13.30

The Future of Legal Gender: What happens to single-sex organisations without a legal sex?

Dr Flora Renz (University of Kent – Future of Legal Gender Project)

Trans child rights and cis child rights: should they be - and are they - the same thing?

Lui Asquith (Mermaids UK)

The Gender Pay Gap and Pay Equality

Sam Smethers (The Fawcett Society)

The Hidden (A)Gender of Brexit

Professor Susan Millns (Canterbury Christ Church)

13.30-14.15 Lunch

PANEL 6 – Social inclusion and (online) access to justice: toward a more inclusive civil justice system

Convened by: Prof. Pablo Cortés and Dr Rossana Deplano (Leicester Law School)

14.15-16.30

Chair: Masood Ahmed (Leicester Law School)

Online dispute resolution: principle and practice

Nicholas Stewart QC (Honorary Professor, Leicester Law School)

Consumer Access to Justice in the EU: between ADR Reform and ODR Design

Prof. Fernando Esteban de la Rosa (University of Granada)

A Research Proposal: Process Pluralism and Equality in the Age of Online Courts

Prof. Pablo Cortés (Leicester Law School)

The Cyborg Judge: a thought experiment asking how AI might augment judicial and out of court efforts to promote dispute resolution

Judge Victoria McCloud (Master of the Senior Courts in the Queen's Bench Division of the High Court, London)

Artificial Intelligence and Small Claims: Towards a Much Faster and Cheaper Justice

Prof. Jordi Nieva (University of Barcelona)

From More to Mills in the Quest for Access to Justice?

Mark Beer OBE (President of the International Association for Court Administration)