Panel Discussion of

The Dark Side of Management: A Secret History of Management Theory

by Professor Gerard Hanlon
Queen Mary University of London

Wednesday 21st October 2015
15:30—17:30
Room KEB LT3
Centre for Philosophy and Political Economy
School of Management, University of Leicester

This compelling book leads the reader away from the stories told by managers and management theories to show the secret history of the field.

In characterizing the progress of management as a war on workers, this book offers a controversial and revealing alternative intellectual history of this overwhelming discipline. The author employs a unique range of theories and sources, including the founding fathers of management, US labour and social history, and earlier intellectual figures such as Marx and Weber alongside the contemporary insights of Foucault and European and American workerist and post-workerist thought, to shed light on the world of management.

This book is key reading for researchers and students across the social sciences. With a controversial and stimulating approach, it also engages readers with a general interest in business and management issues.

Panel Members:
Dr Stephen Dunne - University of Leicester (Chair)
Dr Konstantin Stoborod - University of Leicester
Dr Stevphen Shukaitis - Essex University
Dr Ken Weir - University of Leicester

This is a free event, but there is limited availability. Email s.dunne@le.ac.uk to book your place.