MA Programmes in Politics and International Relations (DL):
MA in Conflict and Violence
MA in Diplomatic Studies
MA in Human Rights and Global Ethics
MA in International Relations and World Order
MA in International Security Studies
MA in Politics in the European Union

NOTES
• *the part-dissertation modules are non-credit bearing though completion is required to support your independent research accumulating in the submission of the dissertation;
• between each Module and Dissertation Stage there will be a short break of between 1-3 weeks;
• reassessments (if required) are undertaken after each taught module;
• the module option selection process (for the next taught module) is carried out mid-way through the preceding module.