

BSA Race and Ethnicity Study Group Conference: Contemporary Theories of Race, Racism and Ethnicity

Friday 31 January 2014

Newman University, Birmingham

Call for Papers

The idea for this conference arose from a discussion at the BSA Race and Ethnicity Study Group business meeting at the annual conference in 2013. Our aim is to bring to light the diverse range of theoretical work that is being developed and to consider how the theory is brought to bear on current issues of race, racism and ethnicity.

Papers are invited that both explore contemporary theoretical debates and consider the ways in which diverse theoretical frameworks are deployed in specific areas of study. Paper topics include, but are not restricted to, the following themes:

- Theories of race, racism and ethnicity
- The implications of 'post-racialism' on the study of racism
- The impact of intersectionality on the field
- Black British feminism
- Thinking globally/historically in connecting race, colonialism and Empire
- Race, migration and diaspora
- Understanding race and racism under austerity
- Mixed heritages and the study of ethnicity
- Islamophobia, anti-Semitism and/as racism
