SEE ART / MAKE ART

Join the Friends and help us keep the arts accessible to everyone.

We are here for everyone who wants to enjoy art or make art.

Currently, 57,000 people are drawn annually to our award-winning, lively public programme of workshops, courses, performances, exhibitions and events. Championed by the late Lord Attenborough, our new patrons include his son, theatre director, Michael Attenborough CBE, Dame Evelyn Glennie, Lord Low CBE, Meera Syal CBE and Grayson Perry CBE.

Attenborough Arts Centre is about to become even better, as our stunning new gallery for contemporary art opens to the public, doubling our size and increasing our potential to reach into the heart of communities.

Become a Friend and contribute to our innovative programme of performance, contemporary art and learning for all. As a registered charity we depend upon your support.

Join the Friends where your donation can contribute to:

- an hour of tutor time for children with complex needs, through our learning programme (£30)
- sponsor free tickets to a show for a family in need (£50)
- free family workshops in our new gallery (£100 artist fees)
- increase the number of gallery tours and interpreted shows for d/Deaf people (£250)
- a special schools arts workshop using live interactive digital equipment for up to 20 disabled children (£500)
- a day-long arts workshop by arts specialists for children with profound and multiple learning difficulties (£1,000)
