18 November 2015 - 17 January 2016

SEE ART / MAKE ART

Welcome to Art, Life, Activism

Our world is diverse and rich in cultures and voices. By exploring the artists and themes in this exhibition we can connect with these voices, and begin to understand our own, and other peoples experiences of being in the world.

Use this booklet to help you explore the gallery and artworks, making notes and drawings as you go!

Share your drawings and comments with us @AttenboroughAC #artexplorers

Tony Heaton: Gold Lamé

Look at the car – trace its outline with your finger.

What is different about this car, and the cars you see on the road? What is similar?

The car has taken on new meaning because of the changes the artist has made to it. Write down or draw the changes and differences here:

GALLERY 1

Bobby Baker: Diary Drawings

Bobby did a drawing every day she was recovering from illness, recording how she felt about it.

Create a diary entry for your visit to this exhibition, and how it makes you feel. Include words, drawings or whatever you like.

Find out more about Bobby's work at www.dailylifeltd.co.uk

Simon Raven: The Leicester Lyger

The Leicester Lyger is based on the liger creature, born to a lion father and a tiger mother. Create your own imagined creature from two different types of animals. What characteristics, shapes and features might it have?

“I was once forced to play Shere Khan in a primary school production of the Jungle Book... dressed in an oversized 1980’s tiger-print jumper and leggings...”

Simon Raven

GALLERY 2

Liz Crow: Bedding Out

This film is about the things that impact on disabled people's lives.

Watch the film, then write words that reflect your thoughts about it, and the issues raised.

Use these words to write a poem.
