Student living

LIVING WITH OTHERS

For most people living in halls will be the first time living away from home and living with other people. This can be challenging and often a huge change from what you are used to.

Respect each other

It’s important to be considerate when living with others. People have different habits, different routines, different hobbies and different personalities. Living with others will often mean compromising and adapting in order to live together comfortably.

Talk to each other

Sit down and chat when you move in and discuss house rules so that everyone is on the same page. Make sure you talk to each other and address any problems directly. Don’t leave problems unresolved. Leaving notes, sending texts, posting on social media or making sarcastic comments can make the situation worse. When you’re living so close together it is likely you will have disagreements. If this does happen, remain calm and talk through problems. If you need help resolving an issue, contact a member of the Residence Life Team who can help mediate the situation.

Cleanliness

Not everyone will have the same standards of cleanliness. Make sure you talk about your preferences early on and make use of the cleaning rota provided in your kitchen. It is important that everyone takes responsibility for communal space. If you are struggling with mess and can’t resolve the issue amongst yourselves, contact a member of the Residence Life Team who can help mediate the situation and solve any problems.

Look after your mates

Everyone has good days and bad days but if you notice a significant change in someone’s behaviour this could be a sign that they are struggling. Some people will talk about their problems and may come to you for advice; others may bottle it up. Either way, if you are worried about a friend or a flatmate talk to an RA or reception for advice. There is lots of help and support is available for everyone. Supporting others can be difficult in itself so make sure you ask for support when you need.

Guests

Make sure you follow the visitors policy which is explained on page xx and is part of your accommodation terms and conditions. It is also important to discuss boundaries with your flatmates to make sure everyone feels comfortable. This includes having partners and friends to stay as well as inviting groups of people over. Be considerate of others and let each other know if you’re inviting people over.

Remember the communal space belongs to everyone in the flat.

LOCAL COMMUNITY

Neighbours

Be considerate of the local community around you. It’s not just students who live in this area, local residents also live close by. Be mindful of noise, especially late at night.

Litter

Help to keep your community clean by putting rubbish in the bins around the site. There are dedicated bin stores for you to empty waste and recycling from your kitchens.

Volunteering

Get involved in our volunteering opportunities with the local community. Take the chance to give back and contribute to projects which will make a difference. Look out for opportunities on our event calendars.

Please email or phone the office to report any issues.

24 hours notice will be provided via email for all maintenance work unless it is an emergency or you have requested it.
KITCHENS

Top tips for sharing a kitchen

• Use the rota provided in your kitchen with your flatmates to divide tasks like cleaning and emptying the bins
• Wash up and clear the work surface after you have prepared food
• Respect other people’s property and label food if everyone gets mixed up

You can find more top tips, including readymade rotas and guides for how to use all of your appliances online at www.browzer.co.uk/le.

The rota provided in your kitchen is a good start to dividing up chores. If you need a replacement rota you can ask for one at reception. If cleanliness becomes an issue, contact an RA or reception and our teams can help mediate and resolve any problems.

CLEANING

As well as being responsible for keeping your bedroom clean it is your responsibility to keep your kitchen and bathroom clean. No one likes cleaning, but creating a rota and making sure you clean up after yourself will make cleaning easy.

Simple steps like regularly taking out the rubbish and throwing away out of date food will keep your kitchen an enjoyable space for everyone. Remember not to block sinks with leftover food as this will create maintenance problems.

If you’ve never cleaned before, don’t panic! We know that uni is a learning curve for everyone so we’ve created some top tips for cleaning online at www.browzer.co.uk/le.

Accommodation provides an assisted clean of communal spaces including entrance lobbies, communal bathrooms and toilets, corridors, staircases and lifts.

If mess gets out of hand in communal areas, cleaning or damage charges can be raised. Charges are applied to the flat as a whole meaning everyone has to pay.

For more information on cleaning and damage charges see the accommodation website: www.le.ac.uk/accommodation

LAUNDRY

There is a washing machine in each communal area of each flat and there is no charge to use it.

If you’re worried about turning all your clothes pink or shrinking them, don’t panic! You can find useful tips on how to do laundry online at www.browzer.co.uk/le.
Do your bit for the planet

During your time in The City, your seemingly small actions will have a large impact on not only the University of Leicester but on the lifespan of our planet.

‘Responsible Consumption’ is one of the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), which aim to achieve true, environmental, economic and social sustainable development worldwide and were adopted by all UN Member States in 2015. At the University of Leicester we aim to embed all of the 17 Goals in our ethos and actions.

BINS

Make sure that you remove rubbish on a regular basis. This will prevent pests and unpleasant smells from the bins, making communal spaces much nicer for everyone. Keep your bin level low by using reusable items and avoiding single-use plastics. The less waste your produce the less often you will need to take the bins out!

WASTE

Our audits suggest that approximately 15% of what is being disposed could be diverted from general waste to recycling. 150 tonnes of recyclables such as plastic bottles, drinks cans, food cans and paper could go for recycling rather than landfill, which means that approximately £15,000 of costs could be diverted elsewhere.

We also found that 10% of the general waste bin is made up of unused food. Let’s reduce food waste by ensuring that we shop smart and cook smart; you can save on your food costs, and we can avoid it going to landfill.

RECYCLING

All bedroom and kitchen waste must be separated into recyclable waste and general waste. Mixed recycling bins are located in communal areas. You are required to use the recycling facilities correctly and read the guidance on what can and cannot be recycled.

Tip: Make sure that your recyclables are clean before you put them in the recycling bin. This is makes a big difference as recyclable packaging will get sent to landfill if it is dirty.

Tip: Make a good habit of moving rubbish to the outside bins regularly as this helps keep your halls clean.

Full rubbish bags must be taken to outside bins located nearby.
REDUCE AND REUSE BEFORE RECYCLING

Whilst recycling is vital, it is more important to avoid discarding items in the first place. We can do this by:

- Choosing reusable items – carry your water bottle, coffee cup and a bag for life habitually!
- Avoiding single use plastic and excess packaging
- Ensuring that food shopping does not result in waste. Try cooking only the amount you will eat, and freezing leftovers or excess goods such as bread or milk
- Plan your week to avoid unnecessary purchases and before you do buy anything first ask ‘do I really need it?’

ENERGY

Being aware of your energy consumption is an easy way to reduce your environmental impact. The University is committed to reducing our carbon emissions impact across the estate, and encourage students to reduce energy and water consumption by helping them to participate in number of carbon reduction initiatives. Energy is our largest contributor of CO₂ emissions and we estimate through best practice measures (with your help) we would be able to save approx. 470,000kg of CO₂ annually, which equates to approx. £100K savings in cost.

Know your carbon and energy footprint for your accommodation

You will find a Display Energy certificate within the foyer of your halls, which provides an energy rating of the building from A to G, where ‘A’ is very efficient and ‘G’ is the least efficient. The rating is derived from actual energy used in the building over the last 12 months.

Top tips to reduce energy

Many of us have heard these before, but do we actually do them? In your new halls of residence, you have the opportunity to create good habits from the start!

- Don’t overfill the kettle for just one drink
- Standby mode on electrical appliances means they are still using 20-25% power so turn them off when not in use
- Turn-off your computer when not in use....screen-savers are not energy-saving devices!
- Draw your curtains as it gets dark. Sounds obvious, but curtains can stop a huge amount of heat from escaping through your windows
- Put a lid on it. Saucepans with lids on heat much quicker, using less energy in the process
- Unplug equipment once fully charged. Mobile phones and laptops keep drawing electricity even when the battery is full

These are good skills to build which you can use elsewhere on the University campus, at home, and can carry into your future accommodation.

Do you have any energy saving ideas – speak to us at carbon@leicester.ac.uk

WATER

Reduce your water consumption by:

- Only using a washing machine on full-load which will save water, energy and money too. Ninety percent of the energy that washing machines use goes toward heating the water, so switch to a cooler wash temperature
- Remembering not to leave tap running whilst cleaning your teeth or washing vegetables
- Shortening the length of your showers
- Reporting any leaky taps or showers in your halls via the maintenance form

If you have any questions, want to learn more about the SDGs or would like to take part in sustainability related activities, join the University’s Plan-It Change Society and Social Impact Team Facebook groups or check out the website www.le.ac.uk/sdg
Any general post that you receive will be delivered to an agreed area in your block. This could be post boxes or if there are no post boxes in your building, it will be your kitchen table. Any parcels, registered post or large items will be kept at Brookland Road reception. You will be notified via email when you can come and collect your item.

Please make sure you wait for notification from reception as even if you have received confirmation from the sender, we may not have processed it yet. Remember to bring photo ID with you, such as your student card, to collect your items.

The address of Brookland Road is Student Roost, 12 Brookland Road,
Leicester LE2 6AB

Make sure that your post is addressed correctly, including your room, flat number and block. Remember that there are 254 other students in Brookland Road so incompletely addressed post can take a long time to reach its recipient!

For example:
Pat Wright
Room A, Flat 2, Block B
Student Roost
Brookland Road
Leicester
LE2 6AB

A few things to consider...

- Parcels delivered as ‘Next day delivery’ (e.g. through Amazon Prime) may take a day or two to process in our reception, so bear this in mind when ordering items and paying extra.

- It is important that you collect parcels as soon as you can after you have been notified, especially if you have ordered large or perishable items. If you have not collected an item within two weeks of being notified, it will be returned to sender.

- Make sure that all post is paid for fully before it arrives, especially if it is arriving from overseas.

- We will not accept any suspicious parcels, or parcels that contain illegal substances. This includes items that are banned from University accommodation.

- Remember that any electrical items should be PAT tested.

- When you leave your accommodation, remember to inform people that you have moved (e.g. your bank), change all subscriptions and remove your hall address as the default postal address for any accounts.
Safety information

Your safety is our top priority, so it is important that you read the following guidelines to make sure that you and your neighbours stay safe during your time with us.

We operate a No Smoking policy in our accommodation, this includes electronic cigarettes. If you are caught smoking anywhere inside University property you will be charged £100.

If you choose to smoke, please:
• Smoke outside University buildings, away from doorways or open windows
• Make sure you put out your cigarette and dispose of it safely
• Do not smoke in areas where there are flammable items

SNOW AND ICE POLICY
Our Snow and Ice policy can be found online at www.le.ac.uk/accommodation.

Please always take extra care when there is snow or ice on the ground and use paths that have been gritted.

HEALTH
When you arrive in our accommodation it is important that you register with the local doctor’s surgery. You can find the Victoria Park Health Centre right next to main campus on Victoria Park.

Meningitis information: www.nhs.uk

More information about university run support services can be found on page 39.

PETS
You are not allowed to keep pets or animals of any kind in our accommodation (this excludes assisted living animals).

FIRE SAFETY
We know that for most people, coming to university is the first time living away from home and learning to cook for yourself. Everyone burns their toast from time to time, but leaving cooking unattended is the most common cause of kitchen fires and unwanted fire alarms.

Cooking safety tips
• Read the instruction booklets to your oven and hob to make sure you are comfortable with how to use them
• Make sure that grill pans are left clean to stop any leftover food catching fire
• While cooking under the grill never close the grill door
• Never leave your cooking unattended
• If you want to practice your cooking skills come along to one of our Let’s Get Cooking events. We’ll have you cooking like a pro in no time.

You may also be tempted to decorate your room with fairy lights, candles, incense or other burning materials however these items are considered dangerous and are not allowed in our accommodation. If you are caught using any of these items or any item that breaches our fire safety policy, you will be charged £100.

We do not allow BBQs.

Our accommodation is fitted with fire detection systems to provide the highest level of safety. If you are caught tampering with any fire equipment, you will be charged. This includes covering smoke detectors, obstructing fire doors, tampering with fire extinguishers and maliciously setting off fire alarms.

All charges can be found online at www.le.ac.uk/accommodation

ELECTRICAL SUPPLY AND EQUIPMENT

Make sure that you do not overload electrical sockets by plugging in loads of appliances in one go. Do not use items such as kettles, toasters, hot plates and irons in your bedroom.

Fridges are not allowed in bedrooms, except for medical reasons. Do not use electrical appliances in corridors. Please ensure that all of your appliances are safe to use (check for the CE mark or the BS kitemark). If you plug appliances into communal areas they are your responsibility. The electrical supply in the UK is 230 volts. If you have any electrical equipment from outside the UK it may not be compatible so it is important that you check before using it.

All electrical appliances supplied by the University are PAT tested on a yearly basis.

Please report any faults with electrical items using the online maintenance form www.le.ac.uk/maintenanceform.

We may remove any personal electrical equipment if we think it is dangerous.

FIRST AID

If you have a minor injury or feel unwell and want some advice, we have staff that are first aid trained who can advise you and put on a plaster if needed! It is important that in an emergency situation you call 999 straight away. If possible, once the emergency services have been called, let reception know so that our teams are aware of the situation.

Instruction booklets for all appliances in your accommodation can be found at www.browser.co.uk/le as well as basic cooking tips and simple recipe ideas.
Keep yourself safe and secure

STAY SAFE AND FOLLOW THESE TIPS

• Close and lock doors and windows, think of your bedroom door as your front door.

• Walk in groups at night or use a taxi if you’re travelling alone.

• Use a D-lock to secure your bike, these can be bought for £10 from the Estates and Campus Services Support Office on campus (next to the entrance to the Peter Williams Lecture Theatre).

• Do not leave valuables on show and register your belongings with www.immobilise.co.uk

• Enjoy alcohol responsibly and never leave your drink unattended. Alcohol can compromise your judgement, avoid taking unnecessary risks and always use common sense.

• Add the phone numbers for security and reception to your phone

Security: 0116 252 2888 (Emergencies only)

ONLINE ACTIVITY

Social media is part of everyday life and a great way to keep in touch with friends and family. However, it’s worth considering the following advice when using social media and online services.

• Be mindful of privacy settings and don’t make it easy for people to find out confidential information.

• Be considerate about what you post. Remember that your online footprint can follow you beyond university.

• Address issues with flatmates or individuals directly rather than via social media. Posts relating to flatmates or individuals can be misinterpreted and make the situation worse. Contact a member of the Residence Life Team if you are experiencing issues with flatmates.

The University takes all forms of harassment seriously and the same consequences will apply to behaviour online.

GETTING HOME SAFELY

Whether you’ve stayed late in the library, or attended an event on campus it’s always important to consider how you are going to get back to your accommodation ahead of time. Here’s some tips to help ensure you have the best possible experience without compromising your safety:

• Before going out make sure you have your phone, keys and enough money on you to get home.

• Let a friend know where you’re going, and tell them what time you expect to be back.
Taxis
• Save a couple of Leicester-based taxi company numbers in your phone.
• Pre-book a licensed taxi and avoid unlicensed vehicles.
• Put your allocated taxi money in a separate pocket or in a different part of your wallet. This way you may be less likely to spend it.
• When using services such as Uber, make sure you get in the right car. Before you get in the car, check that license plate, driver photo, and driver name all match what's listed in the app. Uber rides can only be requested through the app, so never get in a car with a driver who claims to be with Uber and offers a ride.

Walking
• Always make sure you plan your route ahead of time, and stick to paths with street lights.
• Walk with a friend or in small groups. If you have to walk alone, make sure you let a friend or family member know where you're going and the time you expect to arrive.
• Stay alert to your surroundings; listening to music or using your phone can make you less aware of potential hazards around you.

Public transport
• Wait in well-lit areas, and near other people if possible.
• Try to stay with friends, or sit near the driver on buses.
• Have the change for your fare ready before the bus arrives so that your purse or wallet is out of sight.
• Always check timetables for the last bus or train back, make sure you know which stop you need to get off at, and the route back to your accommodation from that stop.

What to do if you feel unsafe
• In an emergency situation always call 999.
• If you want support or need assistance at any time of the day you can call reception.
• Be sure to contact somebody. Whether it's a friend, family member, or reception, they can give guidance or support if you feel uneasy or unsafe at any point on your journey.

REPORT IT
We take all kinds of harassment very seriously – whether it's sexual harassment, racism, homophobia, transphobia, disability discrimination, religious discrimination or any other form of harassment. If you have experienced harassment, either online, on campus, in accommodation, or in the city, please use the online reporting system reportandsupport.le.ac.uk. This allows for anonymous reporting if you prefer. Please note that if you choose to report anonymously we will not be able to offer direct advice or begin any formal processes. You can also visit the Student Hub on the First Floor of the Students' Union where someone will be able to assist you.

In an emergency situation always call 999.

SUPPORT IS AVAILABLE
We have a number of confidential support services if you need any help, advice or support about any issues. Check out the help pages at www.le.ac.uk/need-help where you can find a list of all the support services available to you.

We want to help you feel as comfortable and safe as possible, so make sure you get in touch if you need support.

C-CARD
What is the C-Card scheme?
The Leicester, Leicestershire and Rutland C-Card scheme is a condom distribution scheme, which provides registered young people, aged 24 and under with a C-Card that gives them quick and easy access to free condoms from a range of venues. It is a confidential service which also offers information and advice about sexual health and relationships.

You can get free condoms using your card anywhere you see the C-Card logo. The Village reception is a registered distribution point; so is the Students’ Union reception in the Percy Gee building and the Advice Service.

Registration takes about 10 minutes. You will be asked a few simple questions to ensure that you are safe, competent to consent and know how to use a condom. All the information is confidential and will not be passed on to anybody else.

Once the C-Card is issued, you will be entitled to free condom and information packs from any participating distribution point.

To find out where your nearest registration and/or distribution point is please see https://leicestersexualhealth.nhs.uk/c-card
Behaviour and conduct

We want our accommodation to be a comfortable living environment for all of our residents, so it is important that you always act appropriately and consider fellow students, University staff and the local community. Remember that you are a representative of the University and any inappropriate behaviour could result in disciplinary action by the Residence Life team, Academic Departments and even the Registrar if necessary.

NOISE
Remember to always be considerate of your neighbours when you are listening to music or arriving home late at night. Make sure that you keep noise to a minimum after 11.00pm and we have a No Noise Policy during University exam periods to ensure that everyone is able to study in peace and get much needed rest.

If you have a problem with a noisy neighbour it’s important that you let a member of the Residence Life team know, so that any issues can be resolved. Contact Brookland Road reception with any noise complaints.

If you are persistently noisy and cause disruption you will be given a formal warning.

DAMAGE
You must report any damage to facilities within your accommodation as soon as possible so that we can repair or replace items. If you cause damage maliciously, with intent or through negligence, you will be charged. When you live in a shared community you accept joint responsibility for the communal areas and that any damage caused will be charged to the group unless it is clearly linked to an individual. If you do break anything, you can find a list of charges online at www.le.ac.uk/accommodation

Any damage within our accommodation can be reported via the online maintenance form at www.le.ac.uk/maintenanceform

ANTI-SOCIAL BEHAVIOUR
We want you to enjoy yourself and have a good time, but it is important that you act appropriately and be considerate of others at all times.

Please be aware that the University has regulations on behaviour and conduct, which can be found online.

Any disruption or anti-social behaviour could result in a formal warning.

University regulations can be found at www2.le.ac.uk/offices/sas2/regulations

Complaints and Feedback
We are committed to providing a high level of customer service. We work hard to ensure an excellent experience for all students who are living with us and are continuing to develop and improve our services. All feedback is extremely important to us.

With over 4,000 residents living with us, it is inevitable that from time to time maintenance issues, community issues and complaints will arise in our accommodation. To ensure we are able to respond to these issues as quickly as possible, please follow the procedure (left). Full details of the complaints procedure and policies can be found online at www.le.ac.uk/accommodation.

Residential charges appeals process
Residents may be notified that charges are being applied to their account after a breach in the Terms and Conditions of Residence. These include, but are not limited to, charges for breaching the Universities smoking policy, tampering with fire equipment, causing damage to University property or not upholding your responsibility to keep the inside of the accommodation and shared facilities in a clean and tidy condition at all times and to carry out your share of cleaning of shared facilities.

If you wish to appeal any charge you must give written notice of the appeal to the Accommodation Team (accommodation@le.ac.uk) no later than 7 days after the date of the Charge Notice. If we do not receive written notice by this date we assume you accept responsibility for the charge and will add the amount to your residence account.

A full list of charges as well as the appeals process and guidance can be found online at www.le.ac.uk/accommodation.

Failure to attend meetings
Failure to attend formal meetings will result in decisions being made without your input based on the evidence available.

Do you have a problem at your accommodation and want to make a complaint?
(Please note that only the student who holds the accommodation contract with us can make a complaint i.e. your parent cannot make a complaint on your behalf.)

Alcohol and drugs

ALCOHOL
Take responsibility for yourself and your mates to make sure nights out are safe and fun for everyone:
• Know your limits
• Eat and drink plenty of water before going out
• Never leave your drink unattended
• Be considerate of others
Remember drinking alcohol can compromise judgement.
When drinking becomes more than sociable this could be a sign of a problem. Help and support is available.

DRUGS
The University does not tolerate illegal drug use. Possession, supply and the use of drugs covered by the Misuse of Drugs Act (1971) is against the law.
If you are caught using, supplying or handling illegal substances you will be reported to the police. You will be reported to University discipline committee which could result in you being terminated from your course and receiving a substantial fine.
Remember that you are also responsible for the actions of any visitors, so if you allow the misuse of substances within your accommodation you are also committing a criminal offence under Section 8 of the Misuse of Drugs Act (1971). The University will always consider whether to take its own further disciplinary action once any legal process has run its course.
We have a number of support services available and we aim to signpost you to appropriate services if necessary. Please contact the Residence Life team if you would like help in accessing any services.

PSYCHOACTIVE SUBSTANCES
Any parcels or packages delivered to accommodation that we suspect contains psychoactive substances will be returned to sender.
Any residents found distributing any psychoactive substances will be reported to the police.
Help is available: If you’re experiencing issues relating to substance misuse or alcohol, or you are aware of a friend who is, contact an RA, reception or one of the managers who will direct you to the best support and advice.
Transition into student life

Moving to University and living away from home is a lot of change in a short space of time. It is normal to feel overwhelmed at times but support and advice is always available to help you through difficult times.

SETTLING IN

It may take you a while to get used to living away from home. Get to know your flatmates when you move in but remember not everyone will become friends with the people they live with. It might be that you get on better with friends you make through your course or other hobbies. Even if this is the case, you will be spending a lot of time sharing communal space so it’s good to be friendly, make conversation and be considerate of each other.

FEELING HOMESICK

It is natural for everyone to feel homesick and it can happen at any time during your stay. It may be worse in the first few weeks or when things aren’t going so well. If you are feeling low it’s important to talk about how you feel either to your flatmates, friends and family. Or you can speak to our team whether it’s an RA, reception or manager. Sometimes all you need is a cup of tea and chat.

SUPPORT IS AVAILABLE

If you’re struggling with any aspect of university life, support is available. Make sure you speak to an RA, reception or manager.

We can signpost you to other services in the University, whether it’s an academic or personal issue. You are not alone and everyone needs some support at times so don’t be afraid to ask.

PARENTS

If parents contact us we will not confirm your details. We appreciate that your parents might have concerns but we won’t tell them anything without your consent.

EVENTS IN HALLS

We put on a huge calendar of events throughout your time in halls. There’s something going on every day so make sure you come along. It’s a great way to meet new people and try new things. Look out for the event calendars in your block that change every month. If you want to know more about our events ask an RA or our reception team.

LET’S CATCH UP

Each term you will receive a visit to your room from a member of the Residence Life Team just to check how you’re doing. Look out for a postcard under your door to inform you of your visit. Don’t worry if you’re not in, we’ll leave a note and check back another time. We will pop into your room anyway even if you are out just to check everything is ok.
LET’S GET COOKING
Go from cooking zero to culinary hero! Look out for our popular weekly event where you can learn how to cook lots of tasty meals. Sign up for a place or find out more at reception.

RESIDENCE LIFE
