

YOU ARE WARMLY INVITED TO THE LAUNCH OF

THE BONES OF A KING

RICHARD III REDISCOVERED

By The Grey Friars Research Team
With Maev Kennedy and Lin Foxhall

Saturday 21st March • 1pm-2pm

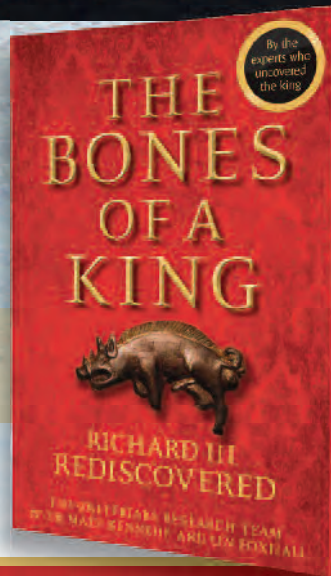

*The University of Leicester Campus Bookshop,
The David Wilson Library building, (opposite the Library Café).*

Please join us in a celebratory toast to the book's publication!

This is a free event and tickets will not be required although please RSVP where possible to:

Siân Jones - si.jones@wiley.com

WILEY
Blackwell

The launch takes place during the University of Leicester's King Richard III Open Day - a free day of family-friendly activities celebrating the University's discovery, identification and study of the last Plantagenet King.