*Approved as exit awards only

2. Awarding body or institution:

University of Leicester

3. a) Mode of study

Full time/Part time

b) Type of study

Campus-based

4. Registration periods:

The normal period of registration is one year full-time or two years part-time.

The maximum period of registration is two years full-time or four years part-time.

5. Typical entry requirements:

Applicants should have at least a good second class honours degree or equivalent, in a relevant subject. Equivalent relevant professional experience may be considered. For candidates whose first language is not English the University's standard English language requirements will apply (IELTS 6.5).

6. Accreditation of Prior Learning:

There are no exemptions on the basis of APL.

7. Programme aims:

The programme aims to achieve a balance between a thorough exploration of the theoretical dimension and the consideration of empirical issues and practical debates in post-Cold War international relations. It aims to provide students with the competencies and skills to understand contemporary debates in international relations and to analyse international relations using a mixture of theoretical and empirical tools. By providing a thorough grounding in the subject, students are made aware of the importance of this topic to a sophisticated understanding of global political developments.

10. Special features:

The programme is designed to build on the university's Learning Innovation Strategy, and is subject to on-going collaborative development with Learning Design, CDDU, and BDRA. The programme is based on a social constructivist learning model and includes blended learning environments.

11. Indications of programme quality:

- Number one politics department in the 2009 and 2010 National Student Surveys;
- Considerable departmental experience in blended learning as a result of the development and success of our existing DL programmes;
- Presentations from current students and former students at national and international conferences;
- Regular progression of former students into academic posts and postdoctoral and research projects;
- Consistent, positive feedback from current and former students;
- Consistent positive feedback from external examiners.

12. Scheme of Assessment

Senate Regulation 6: Regulations governing taught postgraduate programmes of study applies:
