10. Special features

This Programme is designed to give students a specialised knowledge of law, with options to choose one specialist stream from International Commercial Law, International Human Rights Law, Public International Law and International Law. The Programme allows students the freedom and the flexibility to create their own programme choosing from a wide range of the modules available.

11. Indications of programme quality:

- External examiners' reports
- Degree results
- Annual Development Review reports
- Periodic Development Review reports
- Peer review of teaching and peer review of marking exercises
- Student Feedback

12. Scheme of Assessment

This programme follows the University's regulations governing taught postgraduate programmes (see Senate Regulation 6).

13. Progression points

Full time students are required to successfully complete 120 credits of taught modules divided equally over two semesters, in order to progress to the Dissertation stage. Part time students complete the same amount of credits over four semesters.

To qualify for an LLM the students then have to complete a 60 credit dissertation over the summer vacation period.

Students wishing to take only 60 or 120 credits will be eligible for a Certificate or Diploma respectively. Students wishing to complete the LLM must undertake a dissertation.

14. Rules relating to re-sits or re-submissions

As defined in Senate Regulation 6: Regulations governing Taught Postgraduate Programmes of Study (see Senate Regulation 6).

15. Additional information

The Programme begins in October of each year. Admissions for that year are closed on 31 August prior to the start date. Students registered on the Programme will be required to attend an induction week at the beginning of term and follow a core study skills module (LW7004) as part of that induction.
