Job Title: Leicester Student Ambassador
Salary: National Minimum Wage
Department: Student Recruitment/ Widening Participation
Contract: Casual/Flexible

Role Purpose:
To represent and promote the University of Leicester and higher education in general to prospective students, parents and teachers at both on and off campus events including:
Open Days
Visit Days
He Fairs
Pre 16 University Experience Days (UE)
Y6 Bright Sparks Programme

This is a casual position and as such you will have no set working hours however you need to commit to at least 2 shifts per term to remain an ambassador. Work opportunities are offered to our pool of ambassadors through our fortnightly work opportunity email and we try to ensure that all ambassadors have an opportunity to engage in a variety of shifts during the year

Training
Free compulsory training is provided, together with ongoing development support. Your work at events will be supported by members of staff from the Student Recruitment (SR) and Widening Participation teams (WP). Working as an ambassador will provide you with plenty of opportunities to develop your skills and will provide you with evidence of transferable skills for your CV. This is an ideal role for any students who love being at the University of Leicester and are passionate about their course and the University.
