Mont Fleur Workshop & Summer School 19-21 July 2017: “Crossing Boundaries between Public and Private Law”

PROGRAMME OUTLINE

Wednesday 19 July: Arrival (afternoon)
Evening: Meeting of all participants; informal discussions
          Dinner

Thursday 20 July:
Morning (9am-1pm): (1) Presentation and discussion of papers by project members from UCT and Leicester
                  (2) Presentation by Equal Education Law Centre on the Constitutional Duties of Private Schools
Lunch: 1-2 pm
Afternoon (2pm-6pm): Presentation and discussion of papers by project members from UCT and Leicester
Evening: Discussion of research grant possibilities.
          Dinner

Friday 21 July:
Morning (9am-1pm): Winter School: Presentation and discussion of papers by Early Career Researchers
Lunch: 1-2 pm
Afternoon (2-3 pm only): Winter School: Presentation and discussion of papers by Early Career Researchers
Departure (3 pm)
PROJECT PARTICIPANTS

Alistair Price <alistair.price@uct.ac.za>
Associate Professor, UCT
Paper Title: Comparing liability for police omissions in South Africa, England, and Canada

Anton Fagan <anton.fagan@uct.ac.za>
Professor, UCT
Paper Title: The role of public duties in the South African law of delict

Helen Scott <helen.scott@uct.ac.za>
Professor, UCT
Paper Title: TBC

Gemma Turton <gemma.turton@le.ac.uk>
Associate Professor, Leicester
Paper Title: ‘Coherence in Negligence and its Implications for Public Authority Liability’

Joe Wills <joe.wills@le.ac.uk>
Lecturer, Leicester
Paper Title: ‘The Division of Labour Between Human Rights law and Tort Law’

Liz Wicks <liz.wicks@le.ac.uk>
Professor, Leicester
Paper Title: ‘Deaths Caused by the Negligence of Public Bodies: the Role of the Right to Life’

Francois du Bois <fdb2@le.ac.uk>
Professor, Leicester
Paper Title: ‘Reconsidering Public Duties in Private Law’
ECR PARTICIPANTS

Tinomudaishe (Tino) Chinyoka  <tino1072@gmail.com>
LLD candidate University of Pretoria; MSt student, University of Oxford
Paper title: Crossing Boundaries between Public and Private Law: Should Corporations be Obligated to Respect & Protect Human Rights?

Allison Geduld  <Allison.Geduld@nwu.ac.za>
Lecturer, North West University (Potchefstroom)
Paper title: uBuntu: crossing the borders of public and private law

Kenneth Kulundu  <u17159998@tuks.co.za>
Previously, Lecturer, National University of Lesotho
Paper title: The law and city making: South African land use planning through the prism of the public/private law divide

Kagiso Maphalle  <kagisoam@gmail.com>
Ph.D. candidate in the Department of Private Law under the Chair in Customary Law, Indigenous Values and Human Rights at the University of Cape Town.
Paper title: Succession in woman-to-woman marriages under customary law: A study of the Lobedu kingdom

Khomotso Moshikaro
Lecturer in the Public Law Department at the University of Cape Town
Paper title: TBC

Fatima Osman  <Fatima.osman@uct.ac.za>
Lecturer in the Private Law Department at the University of Cape Town
Paper title: The legislature’s approach to the South African Customary Law of Succession
Raeesah Thomas  <raeesah.thomas@gmail.com>
Academic Associate and LLM student, University of Pretoria
Paper title: The Role of Public Accommodations Law in the Conflict between Churches and the LGBTQ Community

Dauglous Tsanyau  <dagtsanyau@gmail.com>
LLM student, Fort Hare University
Paper title: The rise of internet protest: Should the right to freedom of expression limited in the context of cyber law?

Emile Zitzke  <emilez@saifac.org.za>
Postdoctoral Research Fellow South African Institute for Advanced Constitutional, Public, Human Rights & International Law (University of Johannesburg)
Paper title: The Law of Delict and the Public/Private Divide