Bursaries available for new MSc course in Quality and Safety in Healthcare

Applications are now being accepted for the new MSc course in Quality and Safety in Healthcare, to start in September 2016. Offering a thorough grounding in the science of improvement, this degree will draw on the internationally renowned expertise of the SAPPHIRE and TIMMO research groups, as well as other experts at the University of Leicester and from the NHS. For further information please see the course website or contact mscozy@leicester.ac.uk.

The East Midlands Patient Safety Collaborative (EM PSC) is delighted to announce that it will provide bursaries for two students on the MSc course. Full details on the EMAHSN website.

Closing date for bursary applications: 17:00 on Friday 8th July 2016

The PreMieRE Project: Extending Mortality and Morbidity meetings to reflect on error

Prof J Dias’ presentation will be followed by discussion on translating the recommendations into action.

Date: 12th July, 3.30pm details here

Prof Sanjay Saint Seminar: The Art & Science of Clinical Problem-Solving

Prof Sanjay Saint will deliver a seminar on The Art & Science of Clinical Problem-Solving, jointly hosted by LIIPS and the Department of Health Sciences SAPPHIRE group.

Prof Saint is Chief of Medicine at VA Ann Arbor Healthcare System, George Dock Professor of Internal Medicine at the University of Michigan and Special Correspondent to the New England Journal of Medicine.

Venue: Lecture Theatre 1, Centre for Medicine, University of Leicester

Date: Monday 18th July 2016, 5.00 – 6.00 with reception to follow

More details on the seminar and to register for a free place.

If you have any questions, comments or suggestions, or if you do not wish to receive these updates, please email liips@le.ac.uk

http://www.le.ac.uk/liips