The University of Leicester English language requirements apply where applicable.

How to apply:
You should submit your application using our online application system.

Apply for Law Research/July 2019

Applications must include a complete set of documentation as listed below at the time the application is submitted:
- a research proposal, normally of 1000-1500 words
- writing sample in which an argument is made for a conclusion, rather than merely describing the facts or the law.
- a personal statement which explains why you are interested in the studentship, and why you would be a good person to appoint
• all supporting documents, including proof that you meet the academic and English language entry requirements. (Supporting documents not in English must be accompanied by a certified English translation.)

• two references from referees who are familiar with your academic work and who are able to comment on your ability to conduct research and to complete a PhD programme. We would prefer that you provide us with the names and contact details of these referees as part of your PhD application, so that we may obtain confidential references. In that case, please ensure that your referees submit the reference by the closing date set out above.

In the Fees and Funding section of the application, please indicate that you wish to be considered for the Law PhD Scholarship
